Hello, and thanks again for your purchase! This is an “at-a-glance” reference guide you can use to quickly access top resources for making your Pathetic Money Maker function to full profitability.

Note: I may make a small affiliate commission if you purchase using some of the links below. I don’t recommend anything I don’t use myself. I’ll likely use my commission to buy myself a 6-pack of Molson Canadian. Delicious!

BlueHost – I’ve used BlueHost for years to host my websites, and have had only a few problems with them. Great customer support, highly recommended. Includes one-click Wordpress installs.

GunSafeReviews.org – My LIVE website that is churning out cash for me every month. All details behind this website are inside the case study report.

ProSense Blue – This is the Wordpress theme I’m using for my GunSafeReviews.org site. Extremely simplistic, but easy to use, manage, and gets results.

Micro Niche Finder – This is an essential tool for gathering quick intelligence on competition in your product niche. Gives you a numerical estimate of the strength of your competition, so you know whether a niche is worth pursuing or not.

Google Webmaster Tools – This is a must-use resource, primarily for uploading your sitemap to Google. This speeds up your indexing, reveals any problems Google has with your site, and boosts your ranking.

WebWire – I submitted one press release to WebWire for my Gun Safe Reviews site, and it launched me to rank #9 on Google for the primary keyword phrase (rankings fluctuate constantly). $19.95 per submission.

Free Press Release Distribution – If you’re not willing to drop the $19.95 on your press release to get the major backlink, submit your press release to these free directories instead. Still good “link mojo,” but not nearly as much as WebWire:

AWeber – If you plan on using my e-mail list building idea for scaling your business, I recommend using AWeber as your e-mail delivery and list management service. Reasonable rates, great delivery and customer support.
